GOOD ADVICE TO AUTOISTS
FROM JUDGE JOHN STELK

Rainy weather and wet, slippery streets mean extra careful driving. When in doubt adopt the safe course—speed must always give way to safety.

Accidents—are they "tough luck" or just "carelessness." Think it over. An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure.

Don't follow other vehicles too closely—the more room you have the better, especially when the streets are wet or slippery.

The exercise of care to prevent accidents is a duty which you owe to yourself and fellow men. It is better to be slightly delayed than to cause an accident.

Go slow and sound horn when turning corners, passing children at play, driving near schools, passing other slow moving vehicles.

Remember that it takes less time to learn to do a thing right than it does to explain why you did it wrong.

Be careful when passing corners. Think of the other fellow.

For the sake of safety, keep your mind on your driving.

Accident prevention: It is better to lose a few seconds in avoiding an accident than a month in nursing an injury.

The careless driver is unapologetic. To be careful is to be patriotic.

Every man who, through his carelessness, causes a preventable accident which results in personal injury or damage to property is an industrial slacker and is placing additional burdens on others.

Brave men are always careful men. The public wants safety, not excuses.

Don't race motors needlessly. Don't make unnecessary noises.

It is better to be careful than to be crippled or to cripple some other person.

Drive carefully and thereby make friends with the police and public.

Protect the public—respect the police.

COLONEL JOHN V. CLINNIN.

Leading Chicago Lawyer, Who Headed One of the Bravest American Regiments on the European Battle Line in the Great War—the Gallant 130th Infantry, which lost 800 Men in Killed and Wounded in One Month's Fighting.

Oscar Deis of the Oscar Deis Piano School and Miss Ruth Gfroerer, violinist, will present two talented pupils, Ruth and Hannah Schumann, in a piano and violin recital on Wednesday evening, January 21st and 22nd, at the Oscar Deis Studio, 925 McClurg building.

Coroner Peter M. Hoffman, always just and honest in his public life, is a man in whom the people have confidence.

Peter Reinberg has saved millions for the people as president of the county board.

W. O. DUNTLEY,
 President of the Duntley-Dayton Company.

A. J. LINDSTROM IS NOW CASHIER OF THE
STATE BANK OF CHICAGO

Austin J. Lindstrom, who succeeded Henry S. Heuschen as cashier of the State Bank of Chicago, has been assistant cashier of the bank since May, 1918. Mr. Lindstrom was born in Moline, Illinois, in 1881, and is the son of Rev. A. P. Lindstrom, who died in 1895, and Ida Lindstrom, who now resides in Aledo, Ill. He graduated from

AUSTIN J. LINDSTROM,
 Cashier of the State Bank of Chicago.

Augustana Business College in 1898 and commenced his banking experience with the Farmers State Bank, Wausau, Neb., in 1900, later going to Cedar Rapids, Iowa. Moving to Rock Island, Ill., in 1910, he became cashier of the Rock Island Savings Bank in 1911. In May, 1918, he came to Chicago as assistant cashier of the State Bank of Chicago and was elected cashier January 13th, 1920.

The men who are putting extra local taxes on the people are public enemies. The people have burdens enough to bear without putting up their last cent for fads.

William Ganschow is making a fine record as West Park Commissioner. He is progressive and alert to the needs of the public.

Frank Johnston, Jr., able judge of the Circuit court, would make a great governor of Illinois.

Sheriff Charles W. Peters has conferred a favor on all law-abiding citizens, wet and dry, by cleaning out the blind pigs in the county towns.

EAGLETS.

Frank H. Elmore, one of the most popular men in the financial and banking world, who was formerly connected with the Continental & Commercial National Bank, is now president of the rapidly growing Bank of Commerce & Savings. The Bank of Commerce & Savings is located at Michigan boulevard and Washington street, close to the heart of Chicago's shopping center.

E. A. Wangersheim, President of the General Lighting Fixture Co., with offices at 28 West Lake street, is one of the most popular business men in Chicago. He is a booster and is always interested in every movement to better the city.

At all leading reliable gent's furnishing stores can be found the Elgin Made Shirt, the shirt that possesses the quality appeal.

Clarence S. Piggott stands high at the Bar and is respected by the people. He will be a judge some day and in the near future at that.

John T. Driscoll has done much towards the upbuilding of Chicago and especially of the great West Side. An extensive property owner himself, he has always been foremost in every movement tending to further the interests of the city or of his fellow citizens. No man is more respected and no man asks for less.

Judge John R. Caverly gives general satisfaction to the public in the municipal Court and grows more popular every day.

Congressman James McAndrews is making a good record.

Otto Rueter, the head of the big real estate firm which bears his name, is one of the upbuilders of Chicago. The office of his company on the ground floor of 32 North Dearborn street is one of the finest in the city.

 Popular State Senator.

IN THE LIMELIGHT

MRS. WARD, NEW BRITISH MAGISTRATE

Mrs. Humphry Ward (portrait herewith) has been appointed a magistrate in Great Britain by the lord chancellor. She is one of seven. The others are the Marchioness of Londonderry, daughter of Viscount Chaplin and wife of one of the richest peers in England; the Countess of Crewe; Mrs. Lloyd George, wife of the prime minister; Mrs. Sidney Webb; Miss Gertrude Tucker and Miss Elizabeth Haldane.

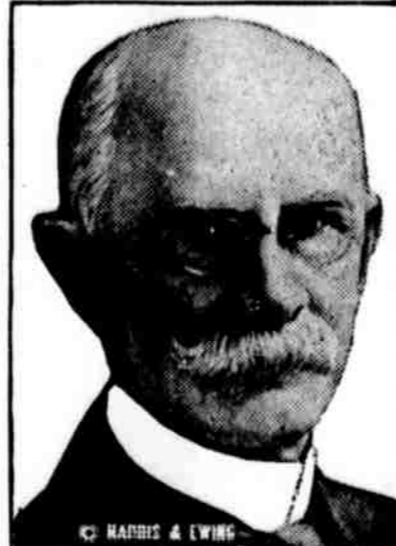

These seven magistrates, the first of their kind, have been appointed in consequence of the passage of the sex disqualification removal act, recently passed. Besides the ordinary duties of office, these women will constitute an advisory committee to advise the lord chancellor regarding the fitness of women for magisterial offices when such vacancies occur.

Mrs. Ward is a famous novelist. She is a granddaughter of Dr. Arnold of Rugby and was born in 1851 in Hobart, Tasmania. Her first novel to attract general attention was "Robert Elsmere" (1888).

Her experience as a social worker, however, is doubtless what brought about her appointment as a magistrate.

SENATOR THOMAS ON OUR RAILROADS

Senator Thomas of Colorado has been prominent in the debate in the senate over the railroad bill. He doesn't seem to feel unqualified approval of either private ownership or government control. He said the other day in a formal speech:

"I once thought, and thought seriously, that inasmuch as the interstate commerce commission was far from successful, inasmuch as the regulation of the railway companies, try as hard as we might, was accompanied by many abuses, government ownership was our last resort, and we ought to assume it as soon as possible. But if the two years of public administration is a sample of government ownership, then may God in his infinite mercy deliver the people of the United States from its longer continuation."

In speaking of the importance of the railroads, he said in part:

"If you paralyze the system of transportation, if you interfere with the normal intercourse due to the running of trains, you not only seriously embarrass the welfare of these great masses of people but, continued for a short length of time, it will visit upon them all of the horrors of cold and starvation."

SOCIALIST BERGER, STORM CENTER?

Victor L. Berger, the Milwaukee Socialist, is much in the limelight these days. He has now, for the second time, been refused a seat in the house of representatives. In spite of a fight in his behalf, led by Representative Mann of Illinois, only six votes were cast against a resolution refusing him the privilege of taking the oath.

The vote on the resolution, which was offered by Representative Dillinger of Massachusetts, chairman of the committee which recommended Mr. Berger's exclusion last fall, was 328 to 6.

The appeals in Berger's behalf were made on the ground that summary action denying his constituents representation in the house incites, rather than suppresses, radicalism.

Dallinger, in urging Berger's exclusion, said that the situation was the same as before and that members of the house, under the Constitution, could not send a man held to be disloyal to his country. Berger, it will be remembered, was convicted in 1919 in Chicago of disloyalty to the United States and sentenced to twenty years in prison.

"LOST A BATTLE AND WON A WAR"

Viscount Jellicoe, admiral of the British fleet, former first sea lord of the British admiralty and commander of the British grand fleet in the battle of Jutland, says he had a good time as the guest of the American people during his unofficial visit. He was presented to the houses of Congress. He visited the naval academy at Annapolis. He was dined—if not wineed. At the Washington navy yard he was shown new developments in naval armament which hitherto had been a navy secret. He saw the shrinking of a jacket on a 14-inch gun and the "lifting" of a 16-inch rifle, and also saw an experimental 16-inch rifle which, with an elevation of 50 degrees, will have a range which the engineers would not predict, as 30 degrees is the highest elevation yet tried. In this position the gun threw a shell more than twenty-five miles.

At a dinner in his honor at the residence of Secretary and Mrs. Daniels, Admiral Jellicoe expressed admiration for the gallantry of the American navy and a desire for continuation of the friendship and co-operation.

Admiral Jellicoe has been called the "sea commander who lost a battle and won a war."

J. B. REYNOLDS TO MANAGE COOLIDGE

James B. Reynolds (portrait herewith) secretary of the Republican national committee, resigned to take active charge of the campaign of Gov. Calvin Coolidge of Massachusetts in his race for the Republican presidential nomination.

Republicans say that Mr. Reynolds' resignation has caused Gov. Coolidge to loom larger as a presidential possibility than the backers of Gov. Lowden, Gen. Wood and Senator Harding have regarded him.

Mr. Reynolds will maintain Gov. Coolidge's campaign headquarters in Washington. He is well liked in the East, especially in Massachusetts, his native state, and political prophets say his active presence in the campaign will have considerable influence in swinging the eastern delegations Coolidgeward.

The Republican national committee without the presence of "Jimmy" Reynolds its factotum for years, will be strange. He has been secretary of the committee since 1912. When his resignation took effect it was said that his place would be taken, temporarily at least, by Clarence B. Miller.

JOHN A. McCORMICK,
 President of the Chicago Trust & Savings Bank.

P. G. Jacobson, of the well known Reliance Die and Stamping Company, is one of Chicago's most successful business men and public-spirited citizens.

Sheriff Charles W. Peters is making a good record.

Calvin F. Craig, the able president of the Mechanics & Traders State Bank, deserves great credit for the well deserved popularity of that big West Side institution.

Andrew J. Ryan, the able lawyer, should be elected to the constitutional convention.

Mayor Thompson was the father of municipal playgrounds. He introduced and secured the passage of the first ordinance creating one while he was an alderman.

Peter Reinberg has made a splendid record as president of the county board.

Judge John Stelk of the Municipal Court is one of the most popular jurists on the bench. He is fearless, able and honest.

Francis S. Peabody for United States senator is the winning battle cry for 1920.

C. J. DOYLE,
 Attorney for the National Board of Underwriters.

Albert J. Hopkins, the popular former United States Senator, is looked upon by thousands of Illinois Republicans as the logical man to nominate for Governor.

James M. Whalen, the popular young Democratic leader, is being urged by his many friends to become a candidate for Democratic committeeman from the Sixth ward. He will be elected if he makes the race.

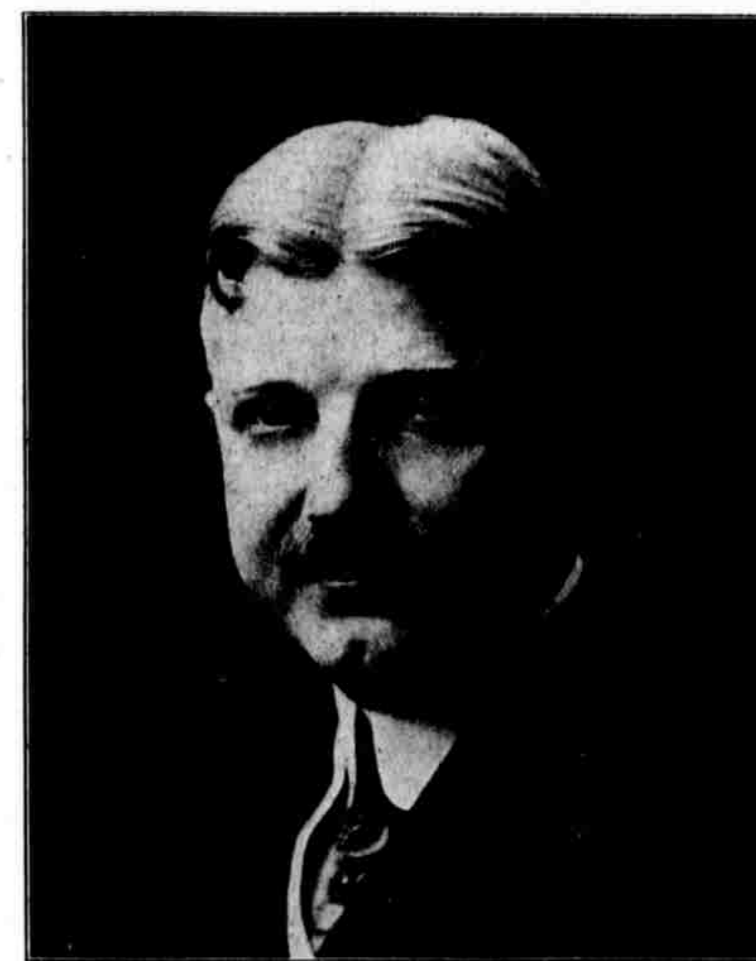

Al. J. Prignano, the popular secretary to Dennis J. Egan, bailiff of the Municipal Court, is talked of for clerk of the Superior Court on the Democratic ticket.

Laurence R. Adams, the popular manager of the fine Brevort Hotel, is one of Chicago's prosperous citizens and one of the best liked hotel men in the United States.

Cutter and Crossett Company, makers of the famous Elgin Made Shirt, stand high in the estimation of the commercial world of Chicago.

John W. Eckhart, the well known miller, is respected as a democratic leader as well as a recognized power in commercial life.

John Powers has always served the people well as alderman from the Nineteenth ward.

DANA H. HOWARD,
 Superintendent of Advertising, Commonwealth-Edison Co.
